

Career Counseling with a Twist!

Tully's Job Search Series: Resume Clinic

Monday, May 12th, 2008 from 7:00 – 8:15pm

Cost: Free (except your cup of coffee)

Tully's in Wallingford: 2100 North 45th (at Meridian), Seattle 98103

Bring your resume to this interactive workshop and get some quick resume first-aid. You will learn:

- ☛ 3 secrets to transforming your resume from boring to brilliant.
- ☛ The best sources for finding industry-specific key words and power phrases.
- ☛ How to turn ho-hum facts into eye-catching achievements.
- ☛ How to handle weaknesses and liabilities in your work history.
- ☛ Why your professional brand is critical and how to create one.

Bring 5 copies of your resume to receive a critique (available to 2 people). Drop-ins welcome! To register, get prep materials and more info, go to: CareerCounselingWithaTwist.com

Future Workshops:

Job Seekers: Why You Need a Professional Brand & How to Create One, May 19th
3 Steps to Interviewing with Confidence, June 2nd

Laila Atallah is a Seattle career counselor and life coach with over 15 years experience helping job seekers and career changers create the life of their dreams.

